

Survey Questions

Segment 1: Households

1. How do you currently clean the dirt off your shoes before entering your home?
2. What challenges do you face with traditional doormats or other dirt-removal methods?
3. How often do you need to clean or replace your doormat?
4. Do you feel that dirt from footwear affects indoor cleanliness and hygiene?
5. How frequently do you expect to use such a product?
6. Would you be interested in a hands-free and automatic dirt removal system as an alternative to doormats?
7. Would you want the product to be portable or fixed at the entrance?
8. How much would you be willing to pay for an effective footwear dirt removal system?

Segment 2: Mall, Restaurant, Hospital Owners

1. Do you feel that dirty footwear negatively impacts the cleanliness and customer experience inside your restaurant/mall/hospital?
2. How do you currently manage dirt and debris from visitors' footwear at your entrances?
3. How often do you need to clean the floors or replace entrance mats?
4. Would you be interested in a hands-free and automatic dirt removal system as an alternative to doormats?
5. Would you prefer a semi-automatic system operated by staff, or a fully automatic system for public use?
6. Would you want the product to be portable or fixed at the entrance?
7. How much would you be willing to invest in a dirt-removal solution for your mall/restaurant/hospital entrance?